

QUICK REFERENCE GUIDE

FOR INCIDENTS OF:

Sexual and Gender-Based Discrimination, Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault or Sexual Violence, Interpersonal (Relationship) Violence, and Stalking.

Use as many or as few of the options below as needed.

1 CONTACT LAW ENFORCEMENT

If you are in an emergency situation and need an immediate response, dial 911 to contact local law enforcement. If you call 911 on campus, the UNC Police Department will respond. For non-emergency situations, call local law enforcement or UNC Police's non-emergency number and ask to speak with an investigator. UNC Police will inform the necessary University staff of the incident.

2 SEEK CONFIDENTIAL MEDICAL ATTENTION

If you have experienced physical or sexual violence, go to Campus Health Services or the Emergency Department at UNC Hospitals for evidence collection, treatment of injuries, and medication for sexually transmitted infections and pregnancy prevention. Forensic exams can be obtained for up to 5 days after an assault. Financial assistance may be available through the Survivor's Assistance Fund.

3 REPORT THE INCIDENT TO THE UNIVERSITY

Reporting to the University provides you with the option of addressing the incident under the University's Policy on Prohibited Discrimination, Harassment and Related Misconduct. It also allows the University to provide any available interim protective measures such as academic accommodations, changes to housing, and changes to class or work schedules.

Regardless of when the incident occurred, you're encouraged to report to one of these options: the Report and Response Coordinators, Title IX Compliance Coordinator, the Equal Opportunity and Compliance Office, or the Office of the Dean of Students. Call or email and ask them to report an incident.

4 SEEK CONFIDENTIAL SUPPORT

Confidential emotional and psychological support can be obtained at any time. The ComPsych Employee Assistance Program, Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS), Gender Violence Services Coordinators, and University Ombuds Office are resources provided by UNC-Chapel Hill. The Orange County Rape Crisis Center and Compass Center for Women and Families are resources in the community.
